WE BELIEVE

We have a moral obligation to care for one another:

- ★ Supporting families
- ★ Providing education, health care, and jobs that pay a living wage
- ★ Advocating for a strong community

We must demand high standards at all levels of our government:

- ★ Ethical behavior
- ★ Transparency
- ★ Highly qualified public servants
- ★ Accountability

We can and should provide equal opportunities for all:

- ★ Equal pay for equal work
- ★ Equal treatment under the law
- ★ Excellent, innovative, safe, and effective public schools for every child
- ★ Affordable education opportunities for adults

We must rebuild our infrastructure as a wise investment in our communities:

- ★ Safe and available drinking water
- ★ Well-built roads and bridges with regular repairs
- ★ Updated and cleaner utilities
- ★ Expanded access to broadband

Henderson County Democratic Party (HCDP) is the local branch of the Texas Democratic Party (TDP) that is the driving force behind Democratic political activity in the county. HCDP relies on a strong volunteer base to staff elections, register and educate voters, raise funds, Get Out the Vote (GOTV), and help local candidates run for office. The County Executive Committee (CEC) consists of the Precinct Chairs & County Chair. There are 30 Voting Precincts.

HCDP Elections Committee recruits, trains and supports election workers for elections, and coordinates volunteer efforts to GOTV. The '24-'26 Committee Chair is Phil Henderson.

HCDP Building The Party Committee focuses on recruiting local candidates for HCDP & County elected and appointed positions; hosting fundraising events and county-wide for the party, for local candidates, and volunteers to support these events and the HCDP Athens office. The '24-'26 Committee Chairs are Candace Story and Vicki Castleberry.

HCDP Media Committee focuses on getting the Democratic message out to Democratic activists through our HCDP NEWSLETTER and social media including Facebook & TikTok, newspapers, radio and billboards.

HCDP meets monthly on the last Thursday evening 6-8pm at the HCDP Athens office.
Committees most often meet virtually.
